

CHILTERN ARTS FESTIVAL

French Fables

Sunday 12th May at 3pm at Holy Trinity

Samuel Ng viola da gamba
Kristiina Watt theorbo

A programme of French Baroque music paired with the fables of Jean de La Fontaine. The form of the fable has long been used as a story-telling device, but also as a way of teaching moral lessons. Jean de La Fontaine's fables were dedicated to the grandson of Louis XIV, who was responsible for the illustrious repertoire coming out of France during the Baroque period; these fables, along with the facsimiles that Samuel and Kristiina play from, have become 17th century time capsules.

And while your ears are treated to a feast of music and stories to whisk you away to France, give your tastebuds the same treatment with French pastries to accompany your afternoon coffee...

Tickets £15 - on entry or book now at chilternarts.com